

Historic preservation

Duxbury Clipper, Wednesday, October 21, 1998

Convent Buildings Demolished

Two turn of the century buildings at St. Margarets Convent on Washington St. were demolished last week. According to a St. Margaret's spokesperson the old guest house and local chaplain's summer house required too much renovation to be practical. There are no plans for replacement.

Photo by Josh Cutler